

Division of Educator Effectiveness

Teacher Supply, Demand, and Diversity in Maryland Public Schools

October 21, 2025

Presented By | Kelly Meadows, Assistant State Superintendent, Division of Educator Effectiveness

A teacher with curly blonde hair, wearing a green shirt, is giving a high-five to a young student with curly dark hair wearing a yellow and black striped shirt. They are in a classroom with other students in the background.

Presentation Outline

1. Workforce Overview
2. Workforce Demand
3. Workforce Supply
4. State-level initiatives

Workforce Overview

1. National Context
2. District Counts
3. Race/Ethnicity

National Teacher Shortages- 2025 Update

- 48 states plus the District of Columbia employed an estimated 365,967 teachers who were not fully certified for their teaching assignments
- 31 states plus the District of Columbia published data on vacancies, showing 45,582 unfilled teacher positions
- Estimates indicate that, at a minimum, 411,549 positions were either unfilled or filled by teachers not fully certified for their assignments, representing about 1 in 8 of all teaching positions nationally
- Compared to 2024 data, these numbers represent an increase of approximately 4,600 teaching positions that were either unfilled or filled with teachers not fully certified for their assignments

Learning Policy Institute. (2025). An Overview of Teacher Shortages: 2025 [Fact sheet].

Maryland Teacher Workforce, SY 2024-2025

Source: MSDE Staff Data Collection

Note: The total number of teachers includes 35 teachers in The SEED School, which is not included in any LEA counts. Only teachers whose primary role is teaching are included in the total count.

National Board Certified Teachers (NBCTs)

The number of NBCTs increased by 40% from October 2023 to October 2024.

- As of October 2024, there were 2,279 NBCTs actively teaching in Maryland public schools.
- NBCTs comprise 3% of the total teacher workforce.
- In December 2024, 1,098 Maryland public school employees achieved NBC through the Fee Incentive Program

Source: MSDE Staff Data Collection

Maryland Teacher Race/Ethnicity Trends

The teacher workforce in Maryland is gradually diversifying, although it remains predominantly white.

	2020-2021	2021-2022	2022-2023	2023-2024	2024-2025
Asian	4.1%	4.3%	4.4%	4.6%	4.8%
Black/African American	18.9%	18.8%	19.5%	20.4%	21.4%
Hispanic/Latino	4.0%	4.2%	4.5%	4.7%	4.9%
White	71.0%	70.6%	69.5%	68.1%	66.6%

Source: MSDE Staff Data Collection.

Maryland First-Year Teacher by Race/Ethnicity Trends

The percentage of first-year teachers who are teachers of color has increased over the past five years.

Note: A new teacher is defined as one with less than one year of experience at the start of the given school year.

Source: MSDE Staff Data Collection.

NBCTs by Race

The composition of NBC teachers in Maryland remains predominantly white with only 19% being teachers of color.

Source: MSDE Staff Data Collection

A photograph of four diverse children (two girls and two boys) smiling and posing together outdoors. The sun is shining brightly behind them, creating a warm, golden glow. The children are wearing casual clothing: a grey patterned shirt, a teal t-shirt, a blue t-shirt, and a blue and white striped shirt. A dark semi-transparent banner is overlaid at the bottom of the image, containing the text 'Workforce Demand'.

Workforce Demand

1. Vacancies
2. Conditional Licensure
3. Attrition

Teacher Vacancies

Teacher vacancies declined by 17% in SY 2024-2025.

Source: MSDE Annual Vacancy Data Collection

Maryland Conditional Licensure Trends

The number of teachers with a conditional license decreased by 6% in SY 2024-2025 and make up 10% of Maryland’s teacher workforce.

Source: MSDE Staff Data Collection and MSDE Educator Licensure System.

Maryland Conditional Licensure Demographic Trends

Teachers with a conditional license are more likely to be Black/African American and less likely to be white than the overall Maryland teaching workforce.

Source: MSDE Staff Data Collection and MSDE Educator Licensure System.
Note: Other includes American Indian/Alaska Native and Native Hawaiian or Other Pacific Islander.

Maryland Teacher Attrition Trends

Maryland's teacher attrition rate decreased by 1.3 percentage points in 2024-2025.

School

The percentage of Maryland public school teachers in the prior year who did not return as a teacher in the same school in the following year

LEA

The percentage of Maryland public school teachers in the prior year who did not return as a teacher in the same LEA in the following year

State

The percentage of Maryland public school teachers in the prior year who did not return as a teacher in Maryland in the following year

Source: MSDE Staff Data.

Maryland Teacher Attrition by Years of Experience Trends

Over the past year, attrition rates declined at all levels of experience, but novice Maryland teachers remain the most likely to leave.

Source: MSDE Staff Data Collection

Maryland Teacher Attrition by Race/Ethnicity Trends

In 2024-2025, attrition rates declined for all race/ethnicity groups but remain highest for Black/African American teachers.

Source: MSDE Staff Data Collection

Workforce Supply

1. Overview and Landscape
2. Teacher Preparation Enrollment
3. Teacher Preparation Demographics

Traditional Teacher Preparation Programs

Twenty institutions of higher education offer 592 teacher preparation programs across the state.

MSDE Traditional Preparation Directory

Alternative Teacher Preparation Programs

- Alternative preparation programs are required to align to the same standards as traditional programs
- There are twelve alternative programs operating in five Maryland districts
- Candidates enrolled in alternative programs are teachers of record (i.e., Resident Teacher) while they complete the program

MSDE Alternative Preparation Directory

Maryland Teacher Preparation Enrollment Trends

Total enrollment in teacher preparation programs has increased since 2017 but is still approximately 1,900 enrollees short of 2013 levels.

Educator Preparation Program Enrollment by Year

Source: Title II Reports (title2.ed.gov)

Maryland Teacher Preparation Enrollment Demographics

Enrollment in alternative preparation programs is more diverse than in traditional programs.

Source: Title II Annual Teacher Preparation State Report

Maryland Supply of Teachers vs. Demand for Teachers

The gap between teacher supply and demand can be conceptualized as the difference between the number of program completers (supply) and the sum of vacancies and teaching positions filled with conditional teachers (demand).

Source: 2022-2023 Title 2 Report; 2023-2024 Annual Vacancy Report; 2023-2024 MSDE Staff Collection

State-level initiatives

1. Educator Recruitment Dashboard
2. National Recruitment Campaign
3. Relocation Incentive
4. GYO Grant Program
5. MSDE RTAP
6. Teacher Induction

Maryland Educator Workforce Dashboard

- Established in 2024
- Updated annually
- Displays demographics and data
 - Teachers
 - Administrators
 - central office positions
 - education support professionals
 - NBCTs
 - student teachers across Maryland

Source: <https://marylandpublicschools.org/about/Pages/DEE/educator-dashboard.aspx>

Teach Maryland: National Recruitment Campaign and Outreach Program

Marketing Campaign

Teach Maryland utilizes a combination of digital and print advertising, social media posts, radio spots, posters, flyers, bus wraps, bus shelter advertisements, digital billboards, and streaming services as a platform for the recruitment of a diverse pool of potential teachers.

Outreach Program

MSDE hosts an annual Teach Maryland conference for high school students, including those enrolled in the Teacher Academy of Maryland

National Recruitment

MSDE will partner with a national education nonprofit to provide:

- 1:1 mentoring support
- Public service announcement advertising
- Digital marketing
- Direct outreach to prospective candidates

Relocation Incentive Grant

Two-Year Commitment

Teachers must agree to teach for at least two years.

Out-of-State License

Teachers must hold a valid license from another state.

Stipend

Unencumbered License

The license must be unrestricted and fully valid.

Signed Contract

A contract to teach in a Maryland public school is required.

Source: MD Code, Education Article §6-131

Grow Your Own Grant Program

- Provides support to collaboratives of local education agencies/local unions/institutions of education that offer teacher licensure programs with on-the-job experiential learning for individuals who:
 - Are interested in pursuing a career in the teaching profession
 - Are employed by a local education agency in the State as a school-based part-time or full-time employee
 - Pledge to fulfill a 2-year service obligation as a teacher employed full-time in a high-needs school, grade level, or content area
- Funds can be used for:
 - Tuition, books, and fees for teacher candidates
 - Stipends for mentor teachers
 - Costs associated with the administration of the Program
- GYO Educator Grant Program application window will open during the winter of the 2025-2026 school year
- Total Grant Amount: $19 million

Source: Education Article, §18-27A-04

MSDE's Registered Teacher Apprenticeship Program (RTAP)

- Approved by the Joint Apprenticeship and Training Council in September 2025
- Developed in partnership with MD Labor and the Maryland State Education Association
- Earn as you learn, competency-based program
- Aimed at a range of potential participants
 - HS students considering teaching
 - Education support professionals
 - Mid-career professionals seeking a career change into education
- Apprentice completes coursework through a Maryland-approved teacher preparation program employed and learning from a professionally licensed teacher
- First cohorts expected to start in 2026 in Caroline and Washington Counties

Multiple Onramps into the Apprenticeship

Alternative Pathways to Teacher Licensure

- The State Board of Education and Professional Standards Board are promulgating regulations that expand the pathways to teacher licensure
 - Fine Arts Transcript Analysis for licensure in art, music, dance, and theater
 - Secondary Content Transcript Analysis for licensure in content areas with 7 – 12 grade bands

Amendments will be published in the Maryland Register for public comment
(Fall 2025)

MSDE will share public comments with PSTEB and SBOE and recommend adoption or substantive changes
(Winter 2026)

If regulations are adopted, they will become effective
(Late Winter/Early Spring 2026)

Teacher Induction

Questions and Discussion

